Crisis to Career

UWGC IS HONORED TO PRESENT A TCPT SUCCESS STORY STARRING...A LOCAL SINGLE MOTHER

“Thank you for supporting my family during this extended time of transition. Recently I found it difficult to hold on when faced with bills piling up faster than I could pay them. With the holidays around the corner, I felt shame and despair when I realized I may not even be able to pay the rent much less afford a festive dinner. Despite my depression, I found the will to stop by People in Transition and speak with Crystal about my situation. She was so supportive of me and understood the intersectionality of how single mothers looking to advance professionally can face a variety of obstacles when struggling with their roles of both provider and nurturer of their children. I genuinely felt like she saw me as a person, cared about my goals, and could see the vision I have for me and my family. She didn’t pity me like I was beneath her...she reached out her hand to lift me and my spirits up during a moment of despair. As if that wasn’t enough, she shared my struggles with the members of the Lauren Rose Albert Foundation, and thank goodness they were able to pay my rent for the month of December. I feel so blessed to have so much support as I practice the art of patience while I wait for my licensure.”
